CHIROGRAPH OF THE HOLY FATHER FRANCIS

FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT IN CANONICAL AND VATICAN JURIDICAL PERSON OF THE "POPE'S WORLDWIDE PRAYER NETWORK" FOUNDATION

The Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network, formerly the Apostleship of Prayer, initiated in France by the Reverend François-Xavier Gautrelet, S.J., is based on the spirituality of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and receives the monthly prayer intentions proposed to the Church by the Holy Father.

Some years ago I instituted the Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network as a Pontifical Society to underscore the universal nature of this apostleship and the need we all have to pray more, and with heartfelt sincerity.

With the purpose of coordinating and inspiring this spiritual movement so dear to me, providing it with a structure adequate to the times in which we live by virtue of the apostolic power of the Church and of the sovereignty of Vatican City State, in view of canons 331, 114 and 115 §3, 116 §1 and 1303 §1, no. 1 of the Code of Canon Law, and article no. 1 of the Fundamental Law of Vatican City State of 26 November 2000, accepting the request presented by the Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network in canonical and Vatican juridical person the Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network, based in Vatican City State, governed by the Statutes annexed to this Chirograph, approved by me today, which will come into force from 17 December 2020.

Vatican City 17 November 2020.

Franciscus

THE "POPE'S WORLDWIDE PRAYER NETWORK"- A VATICAN FOUNDATION

STATUTES

INTRODUCTION

The Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network (hereafter PWPN) developed following an original initiative of the Apostleship of Prayer, founded in 1844 in France by Father François-Xavier Gautrelet, SJ. Initially designed for young Jesuits during their early years of formation, the proposal expanded rapidly as an apostleship of prayer for the mission of the Church, reaching at that time approximately 13 million followers in many different countries. Later on, in 1915, the youth section known as the Eucharistic Crusade was established, nowadays the Eucharistic Youth Movement.

The Statutes of the Apostleship of Prayer have been amended over the years, (in 1866, 1879, 1896, 1968 and 2018) as the initiative has become increasingly a prayer service close to the Holy See for the intentions of the Holy Father (as expressly requested by Popes Leo XIII and Pius XI). In line with the wishes of his predecessors, Pope Francis decided that this service to the Holy Father, through prayer, should become a Pontifical Work. Therefore, if in the past the Apostleship of Prayer was perceived as a mission of the Holy See entrusted to the Society of Jesus, from now onwards, as the Pope's Worldwide Network of Prayer, the Foundation continues to maintain the original links with the Society but opens up to a new universal dimension, at the service of every single Church in the world.

The PWPN coordinates and inspires this spiritual movement in many countries around the world, sustaining the evangelisation mission of the Holy Father through prayer for a mission of compassion for the world. The Eucharistic Youth Movement is the PWPN initiative for young people

The PWPN is responsible for the task of coordinating and inspiring, at world level, in all countries and dioceses where prayer is understood as a form of Apostleship, and in particular where the monthly prayer intentions, proposed by the Holy father to the Church, are adopted as the theme or content of personal or group prayer, sharing in this way with the mission of the Church together at the service of the challenges to humanity².
2. The PWPN is open to all Catholics who seek to awaken, renew and fulfil the missionary vocation which proceeds from baptism.
3. The foundation’s basis is the spirituality of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and this is rendered explicit in the text of the Recreation of the Apostleship of Prayer entitled “A pathway with Jesus in apostolic readiness”³, offering the disciple of Jesus a means for his/her feelings and actions to identify with the heart of Jesus, in a mission of compassion for the world.

² Cf This includes various official documents, among which the outstanding A pathway with Jesus in apostolic readiness, which has the approval of Pope Francis (Rome, 3 December 2014) and presents the story of the “Recreation” of the Apostleship of Prayer up to the present day.

³Cf Note 2.

Article 3

1. The total capital of the Foundation is composed of an initial endowment of the sum of €150.000 (one hundred and fifty thousand euro) and $280.000 (two hundred and eighty thousand dollars).
2. The capital can be increased:
 - a. by purchases, legacies or donations of movable and immovable property to the Foundation, destined at all times to the fulfilment of the institutional purposes specified in this present Statute;
 - b. by contributions from public bodies and private individuals;
 - c. by the profits of royalties, such as copyrights and initiatives, set up in accordance with institutional purposes.

Article 4

The PWPN proposes to Catholics in every country the spiritual itinerary called “The Way of the Heart”, which integrates two dimensions:

a. Compassion for the world and other human beings

The Holy Father commends to the Foundation the mission of making known, promoting and inspiring prayer for his intentions, which express the challenges to humanity and the mission of the Church. The PWPN is therefore responsible for the dissemination of these prayer intentions throughout the world and is committed to their promotion. Those persons who respond and pray for these intentions open their vision and their hearts to the needs of the world, making their own the joys and sorrows, the pain and suffering of humanity and the Church, and are inspired to incorporate in their lives works of corporal and spiritual mercy. In this way, they follow a spiritual pathway which allows them to leave the “globalisation of indifference” and open themselves up to compassion for the world.

b. Communion with the mission of the Son

Embarking on this spiritual journey, inspired and coordinated by the PWPN, the missionary vocation of baptism is reawakened, allowing all believers in their daily lives to participate in the mission that the Father commended to His Son. Thus they become available in an interior way to the call of God, by means of His Holy Spirit, which seeks and guides every heart and every human conscience towards good.

Article 5

“The Way of the Heart” is a didactically structured spiritual process to help us identify with the thought processes, will and projects of Jesus. In this way, all those who are baptised can put themselves forward to respond and serve the Kingdom of God, motivated by compassion in the style of the Son of God. This itinerary makes them available for the mission of the Church.
